Victoria In, Nanaimo Out

Victoria officially became a member of the Pacific Coast Summer Soccer League Sunday.

Despite a last-minute bid by Nanaimo representatives, the league voted unanimously to accept Victoria as the lone Vancouver Island entry in the six-team league. Other league teams are Halecos, St. Andrews, New Westminster Royals, Hungarians and Carlings.

Nanaimo, represented by John Bealey, Bob Semple Jr. and Mayor Pete Maffeo, made a strong plea but the league accepted the recommendation of an eight-man committee which favored Victoria. The committee met with local soccer officials last week and were impressed with the Victoria set-up.

OFFICIALS ELATED

Although elated that they have finally been officially accepted as a member of the summer league, local officials have had to swallow a big disappointment. They won't be able to play their home games in Royal Athletic Park, as they had hoped.

Victoria's Senior Amateur Baseball League has the rights to the park during summer months.

"The soccer people wanted the park on Saturdays," said Wally Thomson, president of the baseball league, "and we just couldn't give it to them. We have big plans for the senior league this season and Saturday is our best day."

Ed Viggers, president of the Victoria and District Football League and a director of the coast league entry, said he hoped some deal could still be worked out.

"If not," he said, "we will use Macdonald Park for our home games."

ROYALS REBUILDING

Meanwhile, New Westminster's Canadian champion Royals have embarked on a rebuilding program. They have acquired Dave Stothard from Halecos and have lured Buster Cairns out of retirement. In addition, it is rumored that Gogi Stewart, coach of Nanaimo's entry last season, will line up with the Royals.

St. Andrews, a name synonymous with senior soccer for 35 years, will disappear from the soccer scene if present plans for the team to be sponsored by Labatts are completed.

TERRY SAWCHUK
. . . shoulder injury

Slumping Wings . . . . . . Lose Sawchuk

There's No Joy in Detroit

Detroit Red Wings have got nothing but trouble.

Bad enough that they have only one victory in their last 15 National Hockey League games, but tomorrow night they have to face the red-hot Chicago Black Hawks without goalie Terry Sawchuk.

Sawchuk suffered a shoulder injury prior to Sunday's game against New York Rangers.

Toronto	44	14	21	9	103	123	37

Sunday's scores: Montreal 1 at Chicago 1; Toronto 3 at Boston 4; New York 4 at Detroit 3.

Next games: Wednesday: Montreal at Toronto; Detroit at Chicago.

Sawchuk suffered a shoulder injury prior to Sunday's game against New York Rangers.

He played anyway, and the Wings were beaten, 4-2. But he has been ordered to sit out a game, so the Wings will be using an untried rookie, Bob Perreault of Hershey Bears, tomorrow night in Chicago.

In Sunday's other games, the Hawks played to a 1-1 tie with the front-running Montreal Canadiens, and Toronto Maple Leafs blew yet another chance to get out of the NHL cellar when they lost, 4-3, to the revitalized Boston Bruins.

ABEL UNHAPPY

The situation at Detroit is bad. Coach Sid Abel says his team is "just lousy, and stinking out the joint." For the first time in 17 seasons, the Red Wings appear in danger of missing the Stanley Cup playoffs. Only one point separates them from the Leafs.

Andy Bathgate scored his 25th goal of the season and set up Camile Henry for another to lead the Rangers Sunday. Andy Hebenton and Lou Fontinato got the other goals for New York. Norm Ullman and rookie Len Lunde scored for Detroit in the second period.

At Chicago the largest crowd in more than eight years—16,482 fans—saw Tod Sloan give the Hawks a 1-0 lead in the second period. However, Dickie Moore beat Glenn Hall before the period ended to give the Habs the tie.

Montreal lost the services of Maurice Richard for one game when he was hit on the left ankle in the first period.

A pair of first-period goals by Vic Stasiuk helped the Bruins to their win at Boston. Earl Reibel and Doug Mohns got the other Bruin goals. George Armstrong, Tim Horton and Ron Stewart scored for the Leafs.

Remember When:

In its first such tribute, the National Hockey League on the death of King George V, 23 years ago today, ordered postponement of the game scheduled the following night between Montreal Canadiens and Toronto Maple Leafs. The Chicago-Maroon game at Montreal Jan. 28, date of the King's funeral, also was called off.

Butler Bros.	12	1	11	0	17	43	2

Sunday's scores: Gorge Hotel 6, Ladysmith 1; Esquimalt 1, Heaneys 1; Canadian Scottish 2, Butler Brothers 1.

Canadian Scottish is holding on to its lead in the Victoria and District Soccer League, but the pressure is getting worse with each passing week.

On Sunday the Scots met the last-place Butler Brothers club and had one of its toughest fights of the season before coming out with a 2-1 decision.

The win allowed the Scots to retain their four-point lead. Gorge Hotel took over the runner-up spot with a 6-1 win at Ladysmith. Esquimalt dropped into third place by playing to a 1-1 draw with Heaneys.

SIMPSON STARS

At Beacon Hill Park, Scots held most of the play but ran into goalie Paul Simpson on one of his best days. Taffy Jones and Mario Fera got the Scottish goals in the first half, and Fred Allen replied for Butlers after the intermission.

Esquimalt held a 1-0 lead after the first half at Topaz Park on a goal by George Paul, but Joe Robbins tied it up for Heaneys on a long drive with just two minutes remaining in the game.

At Ladysmith, Bill Abbot fired four goals to pace the Hotelmen, all in the first half. Bob Mars and Chummy Crabbe got the others. Stu Batte tallied for Ladysmith.

Track Mark Tied

SYDNEY, Australia (CP)—Australian Olympic sprint queen Betty Cuthbert equalled the world 440-yard record of 55.6 seconds at a women's inter-club track meet Saturday. The record was set by Molly Hiscox of Britain last August.

Chelsea Scores 4-1 Cup Victory

LONDON (Reuters)—A 4-1 victory by Chelsea over Newcastle United at Newcastle highlighted Monday night's third-round soccer contests in the English Football Association's cup competition.

In other games, Preston defeated Derby County 4-2, West Bromwich Albion blanked Sheffield Wednesday 2-0 and Bristol City shut out Doncaster Rovers 2-0.

Of the four games, three had been postponed because of bad weather. The Preston-Derby clash was a replay of a tie game.

Fourth-round games in the cup competition—run separately from the English Soccer League — are scheduled for Saturday.

Fine work by Chelsea forwards on a mud-covered field earned the London team its victory.

Derby County, a second-division team, fought gamely to take Preston, their first-division rivals into overtime in their replay. But Preston showed the greater stamina in the overtime

West Bromwich Albion, another first-division team playing a second-division club, was fully extended before winning 2-0. Albion scored a goal in each half.

Doncaster, at home to second-division Bristol City, played with only 10 men for most of the game after Ted Makepeace suffered a recurrence of a groin injury 15 minutes after the start.

Flyers Save Best For Final Minute

	W	L	T	Pts
Duncan	6	3	2	14
Flyers	6	3	2	14
Courtenay	4	5	2	10
Nanaimo	3	8	0	6

Sunday's scores: Courtenay 21, Nanaimo 3; Port Alberni 5, Duncan 4.

NANAIMO (Special)—Port Alberni Flyers scored twice in the final 25 seconds of the third period here Sunday to edge Duncan, 5-4, and move into a first-place tie in the Suburban Hockey League.

Victory moved the Flyers into a tie with Duncan, four points ahead of Courtenay Glaciers. The Glaciers stayed close to the pace with a 21-3 decision over Nanaimo.

One of the largest crowds of the season turned out to watch the fight for first place, and saw Bruno Furlan score the tying goal at 19.35 and set up Earl Robinson for the winner at 19.55.

Flyers blew the lead twice before coming out with the win. They were ahead, 3-2, going into the third period, but Duncan fought back with goals by Thompson and playing coach Red Carr to go ahead with less than six minutes remaining.

Peterson and Simms scored the other goals for Duncan. Robinson finished with two goals for the Flyers, while Furlan, Ken Walz and Bettger got one each.

Almost everyone on the Courtenay club got into the scoring act against an inept Nanaimo team. Hunter led the way with nine points on five goals and four assists. Don Ashbee also had nine points, scoring only one goal but setting up eight.

Bill Sutherland, Peterson, Wilgress and Hockley each scored three times. Middleton got two goals and Bouchard one.

Lippsett, Denny Plensky and Sevcov scored for Nanaimo.
